MEDICINAL.

Happiness must be founded on health. Where there is ill-health there will surely be unhappiness. The happiness of many a home has received its downfall at the table, spread with rich and dainty foods. The first symptoms of disease of the stomach are ignored as being disagreeable but not dangerous. Presently dyspepsia or some other form of disease fastens on the stomach.

At any stage Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will cure diseases of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. But the cure is quicker if the "Discovery" is used in the earlier stages of disease. If you have any symptoms of diseased stomach use "Golden Medical Discovery" and be cured.

"I feel that I would be doing an injustice to you if I did not send you a statement of my case," writes Mrs. David W. Guice, of Hamburg, Frankin Co., Miss. "I had liver complaint and indigestion. Recrything that I ate disagreed with me. I suffered all the time with swimming in my head; heart beat too fast; my feet and hands were cold all the time. Did not sleep well at all. Was able to get about but very little. I commenced to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant Pellets' in May, 1897, and by December I could begin to get about very well. Have been doing my work ever since. Feel better than I have for several years."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, paper covers, is sent free on receipt of 21 one-cent stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

A DIVORCE FOR THE COUNTESS Judge Bahrs, in San Francisco, has granted Countess Festetics, born Ella Huggin, of New York, an absolute divorce. Incidentally, the judge scored the count severely for his indifference, neglect, and cruelty, and for his eviden neglect, and crueity, and for his evident mend-city in his answer, in which he tried to blacken his wife's reputation. The judge declared the count never offered the plaintiff a home except on the little yacht Toles, which was only 100 feet long and of 100 tone burder. He cites the evidence of one witness, He cites the evidence of one witness, Mrs. Ross-Thompson, who was on board the yacht after it arrived at Ye-kohama in a disabled condition, and who said of it:

"The c bin in which the countes lived was a little tiny place, quite unfit for a lady to live in. It was very dirty, and a piz was running around on the deck. There were many cockon the deck. There were many cockrosches all over the place. The crew was a mixed lot, many South Sea Islandere. They were not a lot I should

She then told of the count's rudeness o and neglect of his wife, which was commented on by everyone. The judge then reviewed the Remiegion episode at Singapore, and said the count evidently magnified a simple social courtesy of his wife, as there was no evidence to support his statements of her firstations. The judge finally declared that the yacht was no fit place for a lady, and as the count failed to offer her maintenance elsewhere she had no alternative but to leave him.

DECAPITATED AT PEKIN.

A dispatch from Pekin says: Su-Hai, the murderer of Baron von Ketteler, the German minister, was beheaded yesterday in Hataman street, the prin-cipal thoroughfare of the capital. The execution, which was under German supervision, took place at the busiest present. German troops kept order.

The murderer was made to kneel on his hands and knees in the middle of the street and he was kept in this po sition for balf an hour awaiting the arrival of German officers, who wanted to see the execution. In the meantime the executioner, sword in hand, and his assistant stood beside the condemned man. They each wore bloody clothes. The pair had just officiated at eight other killings and did not have

The man who was so shortly to di was cheerful during the period of waiting. He laughed heartily several times. He said that his name was an honored one and that he was an honest man.

Upon the arrival of the German officers the assistant executioner made double wrap of twine around the man's neck, crossing the string under his chin. He then pulled on the twine and the man's queue, stretching his neck to the utmost. Meantime the executioner put a knee betwen the man's shoulderblades and his hands on his head. Then he jumped hard, shoy ing the culprit's face into the dust, after which he stepped back, took his sword and chopped his head off. Two blows were required to sever his head, which was subsequently placed in a cage and nung over the street.

The murderer was a soldier. At the outbreak of the Boxer troubles he was stationed in Hataman street orders to shoot any foreigner who tried to pass. The killing of Baron von Ketteler was done in obedience to these orders. It is admitted by foreigners, including Dr. Mumm von Schwartzen-stein, the present German Minisier, that the man would not have been execut-ed in a European country.
